TOUR OVERVIEW

Our tour begins with two tranquil nights in the Lakes District, where we unwind and prepare for our rollicking Gaelic adventure and the thrill of crossing over the Borders! Our first base is the cosmopolitan capital, Edinburgh, with its famous castle overlooking the city. On the way, we visit the home & museum of the great poet, Robbie Burns and see features of the area where he grew up. We'll enjoy the first of several Scottish evenings of music and dance whilst in Edinburgh exploring the city.

We then head to picturesque North Perthshire and our base in Pitlochry. It's then on to Inverness, the 'capital of the Highlands,' with a visit to Queen Victoria's beloved Balmoral Castle en route. Whilst based here we'll visit the Battlefields of Culloden and the excellent visitor's centre. Our next stop is the Isle of Skye with its many natural wonders. Then comes Fort William, centre of the Cameron Clan and a visit to Achnacarry House. We will arrive on the spectacular Jacobite Steam train, (made famous in the Harry Potter movie as Harry's transport to Hogwart's !) On board we pass over the Glenfinnan Viaduct. Next we visit the Isles of Mull and of Iona, (the latter, the origin of Celtic Christianity.) Nearing the end of our tour, we visit the picturesque Loch Lomond before arriving in our final base, the vibrant and welcoming city of Glasgow from which we fly home.
